

Authority Mission Statement and Performance Measurements

Name of Public Authority:

Livingston County Industrial Development Agency

Public Authority's Mission Statement:

The Livingston County Industrial Development Agency (LCIDA) is a public benefit corporation of the State of New York authorized under Section 18A of the General Municipal Law. The LCIDA was created through a home rule request to the New York State Legislature, which was granted as Chapter 132 of the Laws of 1973. The Board consists of seven members, all appointed by the Livingston County Board of Supervisors. They serve at the pleasure of the board.

Our mission is to create and retain employment opportunities for the residents of Livingston County and generate tax revenues to support government services. This mission is accomplished through the financing, development, sponsorship, acquisition, construction and equipping of certain economic development projects. Through the fulfillment of the Agency's mission, the Agency expects to deliver employment, health, and general prosperity, economic welfare and needed services for the residents of Livingston County.

Date Adopted: November 5, 2010
